

Terms and Conditions

Below are the M&M Signs and Graphics standard terms and conditions. It is vital that you (the user, the client) please take time to read through thoroughly and ensure you fully understand their implications before you comment any project or order. Please note M&M Signs and Graphics may alter these conditions without notice. Contact us if you do not understand any of the terms and conditions in this document.

All artwork is the property of M&M Signs and graphics and may not be copied, manipulated or used in any way without first informing us of your intentions. The ownership of a project is only passed over to the client upon full payment.

When appropriate the client provides all necessary content including, body copy text, imagery, logos photographs etc. M&M Signs and Graphics will not be held responsible for any unlawful/alteration of this material, including any copyright or trademark issues. M&M Signs and Graphics is released from all liability before or after the delivery of the project. Whilst all care is taken to avoid errors, M&M Signs and Graphics accepts no responsibility for typographical or artwork errors.
